Little Big Farm Foods Opens for Business

Little Big Farm Foods, a Portsmouth, N.H.-based manufacturer of all-natural dry mixes for retail and specialty food store brand customers, said it officially opened its doors with a ribbon-cutting ceremony on June 24 at its Portsmouth facility. The state-of-the-art 3,000-square-foot facility houses equipment for dry product mixing, filling and packaging.

The invitation-only event treated investors, customers, vendors and friends to a “Toast, Taste and Tour,” Little Big Farm Foods said. Fern Bennett Phillips, CEO, spoke on behalf of the Little Big Farm Foods management team of Gus Bybee, chief operations officer; and Ashley Bush, director, research and development/quality assurance.

The company said guests were treated to champagne and lemonade, as well as prepared samples of two products under the Little Big Farm Foods brand: All-Natural Lemon Bar Mix and All-Natural Ultimate Brownie Mix. Sample bags — made by The Port Canvas Co. of Kennebunkport, Maine — included full-size boxes of these mixes with spatulas bearing the Little Big Farm Foods logo.
